ASMSU ANNOUNCES SUMMER 2020 GENERAL ASSEMBLY MEETINGS

Three special meetings called by ASMSU President

EAST LANSING, MI — The Associated Students of Michigan State University announced three General Assembly meetings to take place during the summer 2020 semester.

“The three meetings for this summer are special meetings. I called them in my rights as President because of the turbulent times we are facing,” said Abii-Tah Bih, ASMSU President. “It is vital that the student government is active and available when we are needed most.”

General Assembly meetings will take place on June 18, 2020, July 16, 2020, and Aug. 20, 2020. All summer General Assembly sessions will be virtual using Zoom and the student body is encouraged to attend.

“These summer General Assembly meetings are going to be a unique experience,” said Nikunj Agarwal, International Student Representative. “For the first time in recent years the General Assembly will meet during the summer to discuss concerns and collectively find solutions during this time of crisis.”

The General Assembly is the legislative body of ASMSU. It is comprised of college-elected representatives from the degree-granting colleges at MSU, as well as representatives from the Council of Racial and Ethnic Students, Council of Progressive Students, and major governing organizations.
